ALTRUSA International | Leading to a Better Community® Montrose, CO

July 15, 2017 Blind Auditions at Magic Circle Theater
September 23, 2017 Finals at the Montrose Pavilion

Can we count on you as a Sponsor of our exciting fundraising event? Modeled after the extremely popular television program, The Voice, this competition will bring the most talented vocalists in our Western Slope region together and is sure to draw a huge audience at both the blind auditions (July 15) at Magic Circle Theatre and at the final performances (September 23) at the Pavilion.

Altrusa is a non-profit, international organization of volunteers dedicated to improving our communities by personal service. Altrusa International of Montrose, CO, Inc. has served our community since 1975 and, with its 50 members, is one of the most active and recognized clubs in the entire international organization.

Altrusa Clubs develop and fund specific service projects to meet community needs. We were able to provide financial assistance to over a dozen local non-profits, $6,000 in scholarships to local students, and needed supplies and services to numerous other groups during our last fiscal year.
